Philippians 1:6 (KJV)

"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

CLOSING REFLECTION

These passages demonstrate that the doctrine of predestination is not built upon isolated texts but upon the consistent testimony of Scripture. The eternal purpose of God in Christ is revealed from Genesis to Revelation and forms part of the foundation of the Christian understanding of salvation by grace.

Romans 11:36 (KJV)

"For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen."

Filipos 1:6

"Na may lubos na pagtitiwala sa bagay na ito, na siyang nagpasimula ng mabuting gawa sa inyo ay siyang magtatapos nito hanggang sa araw ni Jesucristo."

PANGWAKAS NA PAGBUBULAY

Ipinakikita ng mga talatang ito na ang doktrina ng predestinasyon ay hindi nakasalalay sa iilang talata lamang kundi sa magkakaugnay na patotoo ng buong Kasulatan. Ang walang hanggang layunin ng Diyos kay Cristo ay ipinahayag mula Genesis hanggang Pahayag at bumubuo ng mahalagang bahagi ng pagkaunawa ng Cristiano sa kaligtasan sa pamamagitan ng biyaya.

Roma 11:36

criminal past. He read the bible and studied theology and he learned and understood the doctrines of grace and became a teacher of the gospel I met William in New Bilibid Prison, in October 2001, as I was the Director of a Christian Mission called Trojan Horse International.

In August 2002 William was released from prison and Trojan Horse International commissioned and sent William, on his release to go to his home city in Baguio and preach the Gospel to inmates of Baguio City Jail and Benguet Provincial Jail.

In October, 2002 I visited Baguio City Jail, as the mission director and a sent minister of Bierton Strict and Particular Baptists, and baptized 22 inmates, who had been converted from crime to Christ, through the ministry of William Poloc. I also baptized 8 souls in Benguet Provincial jail who too had been converted from crime to Christ, though the ministry of William Poloc. These events took place was at the same time that the Bierton Strict Baptist Chapel held its last worship service, in the United Kingdom, which was on the 22nd December. 2002.

William, as his testimony will tell, has worked these past 20 years preaching and teaching the gospel and founded Baguio Christ Centred Churches. And we praise God for being able to tell of the wonderful works of God in saving sinners, in and though faith, in the Lord Jesus Christ.

CONVERTED ON LSD TRIP

David Clarke who had a three year career of undetected crime, experienced a "Christian conversion" whilst suffering from the effects of LSD, he told Aylesbury magistrates, on Tuesday. After wrestling with his conscience for a year, he confessed to 24 crimes, and gave information leading to the recovery of over £1000 worth of stolen property. In court was enjoying himself. "I used to sell drugs to young people, and indulge in permissive sex" he declared.

Seeking Truth

"Within my heart I was searching for truth, and a meaning to life". He had good prospects of getting on in life he went on but "I was not satisfied with what I had, I was greedy, selfish and boastful"

Clarke had been using pep pills and marijuana since he was 16, he told the court, but it was after taking LSD that he experienced what he described as, "a major thing in my life". He described the "turmoil" he suffered, as a result of taking the drug, and went on "I warn any young persons who hears my testimony, "The effects of LSD are so bad, and I warn you to stay clear". While in this condition he said he, "Called on the name of Jesus" and his torment went from him.

Voice Of Christ

"Jesus Christ spoke to me as clearly as I speak here today saying, 'David, I am with you', he said. "What you have been going through is nothing compared to what hell is like".

Mr Murray, of Manor Crescent Woodway said he was habitually sceptical of sudden conversions, and preferred to put them to the test of time. The time, which had elapsed, since Clarke's profession of faith had convinced him that this young man would now be salt and light to society. "He is in truth, a new man, and had experienced what Christ called a second birth", Murray and Clarke now put himself out to be of assistance, read the bible intensely, always carried a New Testament attended a static circle of churches and would spend hours in discussion on spiritual things.

Difficulty

Clarke's difficulty during the months spent deciding how to make amends for his past had been the problem of securing himself, without informing on others.

By David Clarke (Author)

This book is not about drug use—it is about deliverance.

On the 16th of January 1970, during a terrifying LSD trip, I was confronted with the reality of my own sin and the judgment of God. In desperation, I cried out to the Lord Jesus Christ—and He saved me. That night marked the end of a life of crime and the beginning of a journey of faith, repentance, and transformation that would take me far beyond anything I had imagined.

At the time, I was virtually illiterate. I had left school with no qualifications, been sent prison in Dover Borstal, and lived in rebellion against God and the law. After my conversion, I taught myself to read using the King James Bible and classical Christian literature. That education shaped my mind and my convictions, leading me eventually to become a lecturer in electronics, teaching in colleges for over 20 years.

But the heart of this book is not about my teaching career. It's about the saving grace of God, the power of the gospel, and the reality that no one is beyond hope. It's a testimony for the broken, the backslider, the addicted, the imprisoned, and those who think they've gone too far. It is Ang aklat na ito ay hindi tungkol sa paggamit ng droga—ito ay tungkol sa pagliligtas.

Noong ika-16 ng Enero 1970, sa gitna ng isang nakapangingilabot na karanasan sa LSD, ako ay hinarap sa katotohanan ng aking sariling kasalanan at sa paghuhukom ng Diyos. Sa aking matinding pangangailangan, ako ay sumigaw sa Panginoong Jesucristo—at ako'y Kanyang iniligtas. Ang gabing iyon ang naging wakas ng aking pamumuhay sa kasalanan at simula ng isang paglalakbay ng pananampalataya, pagsisisi, at pagbabago na higit pa sa aking inaakala.

Sa panahong iyon, ako ay halos walang kakayahang bumasa at sumulat. Umalis ako sa paaralan na walang anumang kwalipikasyon, naipadala sa bilangguan sa Dover Borstal, at namuhay sa paghihimagsik laban sa Diyos at sa batas. Pagkatapos ng aking pagbabagong-loob, tinuruan ko ang aking sarili na magbasa sa pamamagitan ng King James Bible at mga klasikong aklat na Kristiyano. Ang pag-aaral na iyon ang humubog sa aking isipan at sa aking mga paniniwala, na sa kalaunan ay nagbunga ng aking pagiging isang lektor sa larangan ng electronics, na nagturo sa mga kolehiyo sa loob ng mahigit dalawampung taon.

Ngunit ang pinakapuso ng aklat na ito ay hindi tungkol sa aking karera sa pagtuturo. Ito ay tungkol sa nagliligtas na biyaya ng Diyos, sa kapangyarihan ng ebanghelyo, at sa katotohanang walang sinuman ang lampas sa pag-asa. Ito ay isang patotoo para sa mga wasak, sa also a warning to any who treat eternal things lightly.

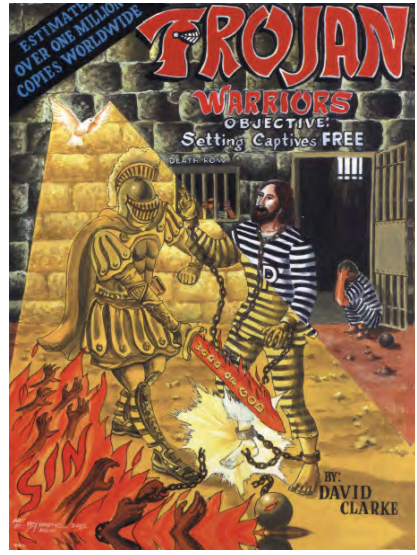
Though I fell into sin and unbelief again in the early 1990s, God restored me through repentance and drew me back as told in The Fall Dspiration And Recorery, Since then, I've sought to tell everyone—especially my former students and friends—that the Lrd Jesus Christ still saves. I write to you as one who has walked in darkness and has seen the light.

My prayer is that this story will challenge you to think, cause you to reflect, and point you to Christ. This is not entertainment. It is a declaration of truth. And the truth is: Jesus still saves sinners today.

TROJAN WARRIORS



Michael and David Clarke

Setting Captives Free. Trojan Warriors is a true story of two brothers, Michael and David Clarke, who are brought up in Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England. They became criminals in the 60's and were sent to prison for malicious wounding and carrying a fire arm without a license, in 1967.

They both turned from their lives of crimes in remarkable ways but some 25 years apart, and then they worked together helping other prison inmates, on their own roads of reformation. David the younger brother became a Christian, after a bad experience on LSD, in 1970, and then mga tumalikod, sa mga nalulong, sa mga nakakulong, at sa mga nag-aakalang sila'y lubos nang napalayo. Ito rin ay isang babala sa sinumang nagwawalang-bahala sa mga bagay na walang hanggan.

Bagaman ako ay muling nahulog sa kasalanan at sa kawalan ng pananampalataya noong unang bahagi ng dekada 1990, ako ay muling ibinalik ng Diyos sa pamamagitan ng pagsisisi at Kanyang hinila pabalik, gaya ng inilahad sa The Fall: Desperation and Recovery. Mula noon, aking sinikap na ipahayag sa lahat—lalo na sa aking mga dating mag-aaral at mga kaibigan—na ang Panginoong Jesucristo ay patuloy na nagliligtas. Sumusulat ako sa iyo bilang isa na lumakad sa kadiliman at nakakita ng liwanag.

Ang aking panalangin ay na ang kuwentong ito ay humamon sa iyo na mag-isip, magbunsod sa iyo na magnilay, at umakay sa iyo kay Cristo. Ito ay hindi para sa libangan. Ito ay isang pagpapahayag ng katotohanan. At ang katotohanan ay ito: si Jesucristo ay patuloy na nagliligtas ng mga makasalanan hanggang sa ngayon.

TROJAN WARRIORS

Pagpapalaya sa mga Bihag

Trojan Warriors ay isang totoong kuwento tungkol sa dalawang went on to educate himself and then on to Higher Education.

He became a baptist minister and taught electronics for over 20 years, in colleges of Higher and Further Education. Michael however remained untouched and continued his flamboyant life style ending up serving a 16 year prison sentence, in the Philippines, in 1996, where he died of tuberculosis in 2005.

When David heard the news of his brothers arrest on an ITN television news bulletin he felt compelled to wrote their story. And then when he heard of his own brothers conversion from crime to Christ, after serving 5 year of his sentence, he published their story in his book, "Converted on LSD Trip", and directed a mission of help to the Philippines to assist his brother.

This book tells the story of this mission. They then worked together with many former notorious criminals, who were inmates in New Bilibid Prison, who too had become Christians and turned their lives around. This help was to train them to become preachers of the gospel of Jesus Christ .

This book contains the 66 testimonies of some of these men who convicted former criminals, incarcerated in New Bilibid Prison. They are the, "Trojan Warriors", who had turned their lives around and from crime to Christ. Twenty two of these testimonies are men who are on Death Row scheduled to be executed by lethal injection.

Revelation 12 verse 11: And they overcame him by the blood of the lamb and the word of their testimony and they loved not their lives unto the death.

magkapatid, sina Michael at David Clarke, na lumaki sa Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England. Sila ay naging mga kriminal noong dekada 1960 at noong 1967 ay ipinadala sa bilangguan dahil sa malisyosong pananakit (malicious wounding) at pagdadala ng baril na walang lisensya.

Kapwa sila tumalikod sa kanilang buhay ng krimen sa mga kahanga-hangang paraan, ngunit may pagitan na halos dalawampu't limang taon. Pagkatapos nito ay nagtulungan silang tumulong sa ibang mga bilanggo sa kanilang sariling landas ng pagbabago at repormasyon.

Si David, ang nakababatang kapatid, ay naging Kristiyano matapos ang isang masamang karanasan sa LSD noong 1970. Pagkatapos nito ay nagsikap siyang mag-aral at nagpatuloy hanggang sa Higher Education. Siya ay naging isang Baptist minister at nagturo ng electronics sa loob ng mahigit dalawampung taon sa mga kolehiyo ng Higher at Further Education.

Samantala, si Michael ay nanatiling hindi nagbabago at ipinagpatuloy ang kanyang marangyang pamumuhay hanggang sa siya ay nahatulan ng labing-anim na taong pagkakakulong sa Pilipinas noong 1996. Siya ay namatay sa tuberculosis noong 2005 habang nasa bilangguan.

Nang marinig ni David ang balita tungkol sa pagkakaaresto ng kanyang kapatid sa isang ITN television news bulletin, nadama niyang kailangang isulat ang kanilang kuwento. Nang mabalitaan naman niya ang pagbabalik-loob ng kanyang kapatid mula sa krimen tungo kay Cristo, matapos makapagsilbi ng limang taon ng kanyang sentensya, inilathala niya ang kanilang kuwento sa kanyang aklat na "Converted on LSD Trip." Pagkatapos nito ay pinangunahan niya ang isang misyon ng pagtulong sa Pilipinas upang tulungan ang kanyang kapatid.

Ang aklat na ito ang nagsasalaysay ng kuwento ng misyong iyon.

Sa kalaunan ay nagtulungan silang dalawa kasama ang maraming dating kilalang kriminal na nakakulong sa New Bilibid Prison, na naging mga Kristiyano rin at nagbago ng kanilang buhay. Ang layunin ng tulong na ito ay sanayin sila upang maging mga mangangaral ng ebanghelyo ni Jesucristo.

Ang aklat na ito ay naglalaman ng animnapu't anim (66) na mga patotoo ng ilan sa mga lalaking ito—mga dating kriminal na nakulong sa New Bilibid Prison. Sila ang tinatawag na "Trojan Warriors," mga lalaking tumalikod sa krimen at lumapit kay Cristo.

Dalawampu't dalawa (22) sa mga patotoong ito ay mula sa mga lalaking nasa Death Row, na nakatakdang bitayin sa pamamagitan ng lethal injection.

Pahayag 12:11 (KJV) "At kanilang dinaig siya sa pamamagitan ng dugo ng Kordero, at sa pamamagitan ng salita ng kanilang patotoo; at hindi nila inibig ang kanilang buhay hanggang sa kamatayan."
